

Photo Directory Update

Sunday June 26, 2011

Hi,

We are heading into the final round of revisions of the directory and we wanted to distribute this update as widely as possible so all will be aware of the project. I thank all of you for submitting pictures, proof reading the text and participating in the project.

I shared with the congregation the black and white draft. I received a lot of good feedback. Then I shared the next version and it was a colour draft. Since then I have continued to get great submissions and correction.

Now comes the time when we need to tell the company how many to print. Each family or individual that had a portrait taken by the company in March will receive a complimentary copy. To order one the cost is $15. There is an order sheet in the hall for you to complete. The collection of the money will be at distribution time of the printed colour directory,

Sincerely,
David Winfield
