A Year on Record-2014 Weekly Journal

My goal is to get caught up this month. I will not be having any in store classes as I am trying to get my paperwork done for Income Tax time and I will have a great class at the Liverpool crop on the 12th. Spots are limited to 5.

Although this method of scrapbooking is easier and faster than any other method I have tried, I still need to find time to do it. Not giving up thought. I love seeing what I have recorded already and when I do get time it goes together pretty quick.
