Dreaming up ideas, Creating fun projects and Sharing with you!

Name the Newsletter Contest

I have a new Logo and now I need a name for my monthly newsletter.

I would love your help in coming up with a creative name that works well with the store's theme.

So, to participate, simple e-mail, Facebook message, tell me in-store, however you want to get it to me, an idea for the name, with your name and a way to reach you.

I will take ideas all month. Then next month I will choose the name. I may have a vote on the names or one may just sound perfect to me. If I can't decide I will get your input through a vote.

The person who has provided the winning name will receive a gift certificate to the store for $25.00!

Sound fun? I hope so.

Looking forward to all the create ideas for the newsletters' name.

The name will be announced in September's newsletter for the store's one year anniversary.

Newsletter Content

I want this newsletter to be a resource for you, not just for studio classes and crops and such, but to provide you with other useful information. I am thinking of including product reviews and technique tips.

Is this something that would interest you?

Let me know what you want from this newsletter so I can make it something you look forward to getting and sharing.

Would you like to have a “ask Tammy” section where you can ask your scrapbooking, card making or other related questions and get the answer in the next issue? Or is a month too long too wait for replies?

Online Store Update

Well, the store is slowly getting put online. The newest orders are imputed online and then onto the computer for the store location.

There are many new products but only the ones that are NEW to the store (not been in stock before) are listed under the New section. You can view images, and pricing and product information. However until I get the bulk of the store online I am not enabling the cart to work. I am hoping this will all be done over the summer . You can e-mail me from the site if you see items you are interested in and I can set them aside for you to pick up. You can also sign up for the newsletter if you haven't already done so.

Thank you again to all those who took the time to respond to my question about having an online store.

I know it is a slow process, but I am working at it.

Thank you for your patience.

Credit Cards Accepted and New Program Update

I am able accept Visa, Master Card, and American Express credit cards, and now I can also accept Discover card using Square Register. I also accept cash, Paypal and e-transfer as forms of payment.

I have cancelled the square reader reward program as it is not compatible with my current phone, only the iPad which will not consistently connect to my internet service to take payments.

I will re-instate this program should I be able to get the internet to work on my iPad. I am hoping this will be soon. Anyone already due for this reward will get a manual discount.
