New Logo

Volume 2 Issue 6

If you haven't seen it yet...here it is!

My new Logo. I have worked on this for sometime. I wanted images in it that represented scrapbooking and memory keeping and the love I have for it and hopefully the love you have for it as well. I had my son help me and this is the result.

Thanks to Pleasantville Signs for printing them.

The decals are the first item I have had printed with it and have since printed business cards as well. Watch for it to be in all my publications soon. The car will have in in time for the Parades. The website will probably be last as I plan to re-do it all and hopefully get the store online soon. You can get yours free with any purchase at the store or possibly at a parade.

Please limit 1 per customer.

A Year on Record-2014 Weekly Journal

Did you know there are over 10 different pocket page layout options in 12 x 12 and even more options if you take into account 6 x 8 pocket page layouts or other company style page layouts. That gives you a lot of variety for your pocket pages.

Do you stick to one favorite layout or do you switch it up? I have a favorite but then I like to add in something different for variety every now and again.

Studio Crops

Make your own crop time for June- with near end of school and busy schedules this will allow you to crop when it is good for you.

Just $2.50/ hour of happy scrappy time. Members just $1.75/hour.

Please book at least 1 day ahead to arrange studio time. Space is limited.

Canada Day Parades

2:00pm in New Germany

Check us out in the parade!

I ran this class in May but have decided to run it again as I was very late getting the images for the class posted. If you are like me, you like to see what you are signing up for before making a commitment.

You can sign up for morning or evening. You will make all three cards. They all have a masculine feel, perfect for Dad. They also all use a peek a boo technique.

So sign up and make some great cards for the Dad's in your life.

Nikita's Knick Knacks

Thank you for your support to anyone who bought handmade Knick Knack's from my daughter at Hebbville.

She had a very successful day selling out of all her Mother's Day Cards (16), all her bracelets (19) and key chains (9), and almost completely out of her rings (only had 2 left and she made 37) She also had 1 mobile (5) left which she donated to the school resource room.

She worked very hard, having had a hand in the creation of almost every item. Only a few were made by me. I made a sample mobile and a couple bracelets– they were actually really fun to make. I had to resist making more on her behalf.

Great Job Nikita!

Credit Cards Accepted and New Program Update

I am able accept Visa, Master Card, and American Express credit cards, and now I can also accept Discover card using Square Register. I also accept cash, Paypal and e-transfer as forms of payment.

I have cancelled the square reader reward program as it is not compatible with my current phone, only the iPad which will not consistently connect to my internet service to take payments.

I will re-instate this program should I be able to get the internet to work on my iPad. I am hoping this will be soon. Anyone already due for this reward will get as a manual discount.

Studio Membership

Studio Membership Update
