Favor Boxes

You may not know that I have an assortment of favor box dies in the studio that are perfect for any event where you want to have a small favor for your guests.

The box shown below can include custom printing

These are the boxes I used for my recent wedding that took place on Valentine's Day.

They stack nicely and were just the right size for the Ferrero Roche chocolates we put inside.

A bit of red paper shred and they were perfect.

Great for birthdays, anniversaries, wedding and more.

Die cutting makes them fast and easy!

A Year on Record-2014 Weekly Journal

Okay I am officially behind but will catch up now that the bridal show and my own wedding are over with. It has been a crazy month here at my house but I can get back on track now.

How are your Year on Records coming along? Are you getting every week? It is a challenge, believe me I know, but even if a week gets missed, it is still a wonderful record in the end, so don't give up.

Have you been wanting to get scrapbooking but just don't have the space or the tools to get started. I can help. I have a studio where you can come and use my tools and space and get scrappy happy for several hours at a time. Create a scrapbook, make some cards, with hundreds of stamps, and hundreds of dies you get creative and you won't have to clear the dining room table to do so, and then clear it again to eat. The studio has an Accucut Grand Mark, a Big Shot, A Cricut, various trimmers, a variety of punches, scissors, Crop o Dile, Big Bite, Corner Chompers, Stencils, and so much more. If you are unfamiliar with a particular tool, just ask for a demonstration and I will show you how easy they are to use. Maybe I will have a tip to make it's use easier, or maybe you will have a tip to share. It's all about helping you get your memories recorded.
