Dreaming up ideas, Creating fun projects and Sharing with you!

New Fall Dies in the Studio

I have some new fall themed dies in the studio. Leaf -autumn is available to cut in two sizes. One is a good size for a mini album (approx. 9" & 4") the other is great to embellish albums or cards, both are great for classroom decorations. The pumpkin is album sized (approx. 8" x9").

The baby shoe die is great for baby shower favors, or to put a gift card in for gift giving. Add to the center of an explosion box.

Watch for videos and pictures of projects, classes and more created using these dies shortly.

Online Store Update

The online store address is shopdcands.com (please allow time to load)

I know everyone messaged me that they were excited to have the store online but I have not had any orders placed this way. I will continue this for a few more months to see if it is actually worth all the extra work and money-it is not free to have an online store. My reports aren't even showing anyone visiting the page.

I would appreciate any feedback regarding this.

Store Hours

In an effort to provide more regular hours I am going to be open Wednesday Noon to 5:00pm, Thursdays Noon until 8:00pm and Fridays 10:am-8:00pm. This may still change, for instance on Crop weekends I will be open at the Crop and not in store or due to medical reasons. All other times by chance, except Sundays, when I am always closed.

Cards Accepted Update

I am able accept Visa, Master Card, and American Express, and Discover Credit cards and now I am able to accept Visa Debit using Square Register. Visa Debit is a debit card and not a credit card.

I also accept cash, Paypal and e-transfer as forms of payment.

This is great news, and I knew they would soon have it. Visa Debit is NOT a credit card but allows you to use as you would a credit card but it doesn't put you into debt. I hope you are as excited about this as I am. I am not sure how many bank have the ability to have visa debit but I do know TD does for sure as my husband is with this bank. Please help spread the word and check with your banks to see if they offer Visa Debit. There is no extra fees to this that I am aware, based on my husband's experience.
