A MAJOR EXPERIENCE

Our Music Tuned to Your Future

Music is an integral part of who we all are,
how we communicate, how we think and how we feel. Through music, and especially through the playing of music, we discover ourselves.

MINOR MUSIC

JUNE 5 TH'YARC
Opening Ceremony and Songwriters' Circle
7pm

JUNE 6 Rodd Grand Conference
9:30 am all day

Minor Music is an avenue to help aspiring musicians realize their musical goals, no matter how large or small those goals may be.

We can benefit from the inspiration provided by the workshops, the leadership, and the networking. We need musical challenges for our students and mentors who will encourage us to take the right path.

Minor Music's vision is to create music involvement for people ages 10 years to 90 years by;

1. Inspiring people to discover their potential through creativity and performance.
2. Building and developing discipline and spirit to accomplish a dream.
3. Expanding artistic opportunities available to all people.
4. Enhancing the quality of our community's life.

A non-competitive setting, Minor Music strives to foster and promote a lifelong interest in music as a basic human experience.

DAY'S EVENTS

The conference is an all day event. Throughout the day there will be six workshops. Your fee allows you to pick & choose which workshops you want to attend or you attend them all:

1. Master class: Bass:
George Barkhouse
2. Master class: Drums:
Dave Skinner
3. Guitar techniques:
Brad Conrad
4. Guitar Stylings:
Duke Greene
5. Careers in Music:
Music Nova Scotia
6. Songwriters' workshop: Invitation only:
SOCAN
Dwight d'Eon & Ryan Cook

Although formal teaching on music theory and practice is a necessity to becoming a skilled performer, it is through experience that we are able to put to use what we have learned.

With Music Nova Scotia's provincial event: Music Week coming to Yarmouth in November 09, Minor Music is a good opportunity for participants to learn more about the annual event that celebrates musicianship and what it means for the community
